Board member Dan R has generously again this year agreed to donate the money to purchase the meat for the class. Thank You Dan!!

The board will be asking a member or two to donate their time to cook the meat for the class. So if you are a Society member and would like to help us with this need please contact any board member or email us at iabbqsociety@gamil.com. If we are not able to find someone for this job, Chris Ritter said he would volunteer his time to cook for the class.
